JCA'S SOCIAL SERVICES

Employment

Our employment services assist job seekers with securing sustainable employment and achieving career goals. Services include client services planning and coordination, resource and information, job search, job matching and placement and job retention. We provide computers, internet access, photocopier, fax machine, videos and printed material related to job search.

Settlement

This program is aimed at assisting newcomer clients who reside in Canada. Clients receive support and information on issues of employment, housing, education, family sponsorship and other related services.

Leaders in Partnership

This is a 10-week social activity program in collaboration with the schools and Toronto Police 31 Division. The program is designed to address the social and emotional needs of children in developing a more positive attitude towards school and their community.

Canadian Association

K-Club

The K-Club assists young men and women ages 16 to 26 of Caribbean and other Ethno-cultural heritage make the transition to a successful integration into family and community life.

Culturally-attuned staff combines individual counselling and group support to help prepare the youth for a successful future.

Parenting

The Parenting Program provides individual support, family mediation, mobile crisis counselling, and crisis intervention to individuals and families. The program is also involved in referrals to community resources, dealing with custody issues, visitations, home assessments, family court parental assessments and advocacy.

Youth Outreach Worker

This program is aimed at engaging and connecting youth between the ages of 12 to 21 with needed services and collaborates with other community resources within identified neighborhoods.

Violence Against Women

This program provides support to women and children who are experiencing or have experienced domestic violence. The program assists women and children to live a life free from violence through individual, couple, group and crisis counselling, legal and parenting support. Safety planning and lifestyle management are also included in the program.

Caribbean Canadian Seniors Club

The Caribbean Canadian Seniors Club (CCSC) is a program where members meet weekly on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The program offers interaction and a variety of activities for seniors.

Saturday Morning Tutorial

The Saturday Morning Tutorial program (SMTP) is a weekly program supporting students from grades 1-12.

VOLUNTEER COMMITTEES

The JCA has standing committees through which members volunteer their time and creativity towards cultural and social development in the community. Community chairpersons sit on the Board of Directors.
